The West End

davie . denman . robson

Vancouver's West End is a fantastic neighbourhood, home to three great commercial streets, Davie, Denman and Robson, high density residential dwellings, gorgeous sandy beaches, stunning parks, hotels, shopping, bars, pubs, nightlife, and a wide range of restaurants serving cuisine from around the world.

Vancouver's vibrant West End is also one of the city's most cosmopolitan neighbourhoods, bordered by long stretches of beaches with palm trees on two sides, Stanley Park on another, the shimmering glass towers of downtown to the northeast, surrounded by a spectacular seawall.

Within easy access of all major downtown hotels, and home to a number of hotels itself, the upper Davie Street area is home turf for Davie Village, the world-renowned 24/7 hub for Vancouver's LGBTQ2+ community, offering a great selection of pubs, nightclubs, restaurants, shops and services.

We are delighted to see that many of the large scale, world-class annual events in the West End are continuing to enhance their live celebrations, including the Vancouver Pride Parade and the Honda Celebration of Light.

To find out more about this intriguing part of Vancouver's colourful cultural mosaic, visit the West End Business Improvement Association website: <https://westendbia.com> #WeAmaze

Davie Village

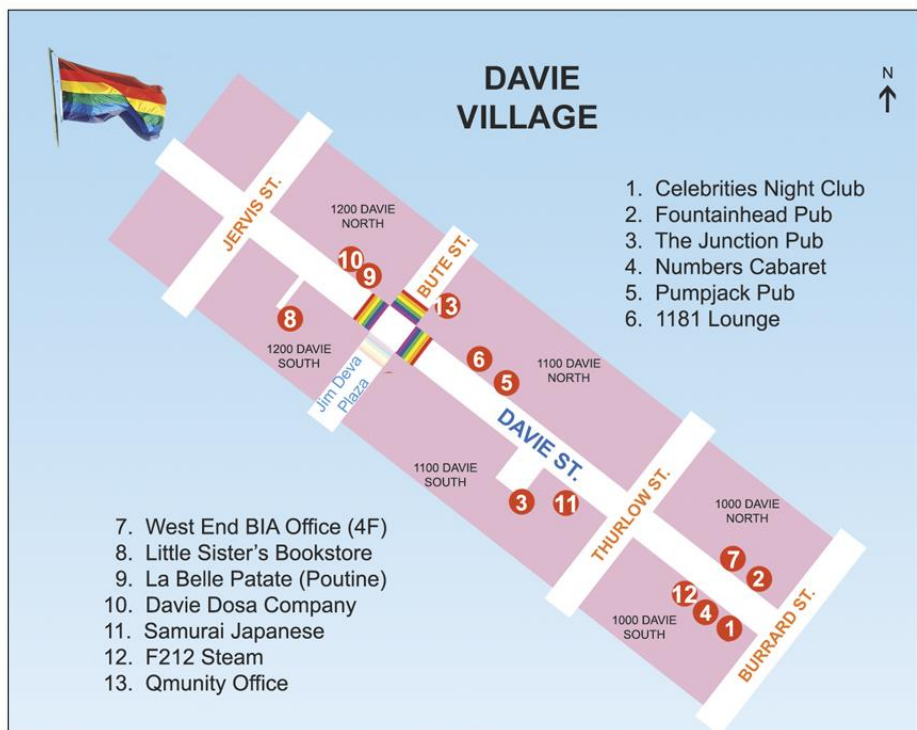

Davie Village is a colourful part of downtown Vancouver's West End, within easy walking access, or a short public transportation ride from all major downtown hotels. Vancouver's fabulous sandy beaches, beautiful parks and spectacular natural scenery are also just steps away, making Davie Village a great place to start your exploration of LGBTQ2+ Vancouver, or to visit regularly if you live here.

Considered by many to be the heart of Vancouver's gay community, this thriving neighbourhood offers a wide range of reasonably priced unique restaurants, bars and pubs, hotels and spas, specialty shops, bookstores, and more. Of course there have been many changes over the past few years and the village continues to evolve and thrive. The expansion of outdoor patios continue to be a colourful and lively addition to the Davie streetscape in 2024, and there are even more enhancements under review at our time of writing; stay tuned.

Ongoing enhancements include the now world-famous rainbow crosswalks at the corner of Bute & Davie, and colourful strings of LED street lighting, which make for unique selfies and photo ops. The retro Davie Village sign, located beside the Community Gardens near the east village entrance on Davie Street is another fab photo op, for visitors to the village.

Jim Deva Plaza, the 2.3 million dollar public space in the heart of Davie Village, is a community serving gathering space and home to a variety of events and activities, year round. This hub for the LGBTQ2+ community, Jim Deva Plaza is a living memorial to the late Jim Deva, one of Vancouver's best known gay pioneers and heroes, located just half a block from his beloved Little Sister's Book & Art Emporium. Historic signage and colourful decor make this a popular meeting spot in town.

Granville Island

Granville Island is a unique, highly recommended part of the Vancouver experience, within easy access of the downtown core and Davie Village. You can easily spend a full day exploring this fascinating urban oasis, or visit several times during your stay. Home to theatres, galleries, specialty boutiques, large public market, restaurants, pubs, buskers, fantastic scenery, and more.

Stanley Park

Gorgeous beaches, fabulous mountain backdrops, stunning city views, year-round gardens, and many attractions of interest, are just some of the reasons Stanley Park is a popular destination for LGBTQ2+ Vancouverites and visitors alike. Twenty-seven kilometers of forest trails crisscross this amazing park, making for a seemingly out-of-the-way hike, within a major urban setting. Many have also chosen to exchange vows in the park, whether with a small outdoor ceremony by the sea, or a full-service catered event with all the trimmings.

Highlights of the 1001 acre park include the stunning 8.8 km Seawall around the park, The Vancouver Aquarium, Lost Lagoon, First Nations Totem Poles, Second Beach Pool, Third Beach, Beaver Lake, Lions Gate Bridge, The Stanley Park Miniature Train, Stanley Park Horse Drawn Tours, Theatre Under The Stars, Brockton Athletic Fields, Pitch and Put, Brockton Point Cricket Club, The Vancouver Rowing Club, the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club, Stanley Park Pavilion and more.

Tall Douglas Fir, Western Red Cedar and Sitka Spruce are among the magnificent tree species that give a natural feel to this urban oasis. Garden enthusiasts can also enjoy spectacular Rhododendron and Azalea hybrids in the Ted and Mary Greig Rhododendron Garden and the Stanley Park Rose Garden right next to the Stanley Park Pavilion is a must see.
